2022 PENTICTON DRAGON BOAT FESTIVAL Race Information Package

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Race Format: Approximately 500 metre races in an Open format. Each team will be guaranteed three to four races (weather permitting). Full race grid will be sent 3-4 days prior to the event.

- Race format is subject to change.
- Please view the Race Rules & Regulations on the website.
- We recommend that you have at least 6 practice sessions and a competent steersperson in order to safely compete in the festival.
- MIXED CATEGORY: There must be a minimum of ten women paddlers in the boat at all times (NEW - changed to reflect 10 men, 10 women).
- WOMEN'S CATEGORY: All paddlers must be female, but steersperson and drummer can be any gender.
- Paddlers may only be on one team roster. The exception is that Women may be on both a Women's and a Mixed roster.
- Registered Drummers and steerspeople with appropriate wristbands may sub for other teams without being on the roster. Paddlers may not – they MUST be rostered with a specific team to paddle on that team.

WIND AND/OR WEATHER-RELATED SAFETY

The Penticton Dragon Boat Festival is an outdoor event and as such is subject to changing weather. Race officials, as always, will monitor conditions to ensure a safe event for all participants. In the event that racing is cancelled by unsafe conditions before the majority of races have been held, the Race Committee reserves the right to reconvene racing in the evening or early the following morning in order to complete the racing (weather permitting). There will be no refunds should the event be cancelled due to weather conditions.

LOCAL PRACTICES AND TRAINING INFORMATION

Train for the Penticton Dragon Boat Festival! All local teams in the Penticton area wishing to enter a team in the Penticton Dragon Boat Festival must participate in a Dragon Boat Program. The Penticton Paddling Centre is the official local training centre for the Festival and offers a wide variety of program options for all ages and abilities.

Friday afternoon/evening practice sessions are available to out of town teams attending the event. Email info@pentictondragonboat.com to book your practice session.
